Intentional plagiarism or collusion amounts to cheating under Part 7 of the Monash University (Council) Regulations.

Plagiarism: means taking and using another person's ideas or manner of expressing them and passing them off as one's own. For example, by failing to give appropriate acknowledgement. The material used can be from any source (staff, students or the internet, published or unpublished works).

Collusion: means unauthorised collaboration with another person on assessable written, oral or practical work and includes paying another person to complete all or part of the work.

Where there are reasonable grounds for believing that intentional plagiarism or collusion has occurred, this will be reported to the Chief Examiner, who may disallow the work concerned by prohibiting assessment or refer the matter to the Associate Dean Teaching and Learning.

Student Statement:

- I have read the University's Student Academic Integrity Policy and the University's Student Academic Integrity: Managing Plagiarism and Collusion Procedures.
- I understand the consequences of engaging in plagiarism and collusion as described in Part 7 of the Monash University (Council) Regulations.
